

porate the German Reformed Congregation in Baltimore town, passed 24th December 1795 ;

Were sent to the senate.

The Speaker laid before the house a letter from George R. Mosher, accepting his appointment as director of the Bank of Baltimore.

Mr. Polk presented the petition of Robert Askey, praying to be divorced from his wife, Margaret Askey ;

Read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Graves presented the petition of A. F. Dulin, of the city of Baltimore, to bring two slaves into this State ;

Read and referred to the committee on colored population.

Also, the petition of Henry Myers, of the city of Baltimore, for a remission of interest upon judgment against him as security ;

Read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Also, the report of the University of Maryland, and their petition, praying a relinquishment of annual interest due the State ;

Read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Simmons presented the petition of Elizabeth Thornburg, praying to be divorced from her husband, Thomas Thosnburg ;

Read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Keppler presented the petition of 77 citizens of Washington county, praying the repeal of the law, establishing magistrates courts, so far as relates to said county, and for an extension of the jurisdiction of magistrates to one hundred dollars ;

Read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Mr. Welch, of Annapolis, presented the memorial of Henrietta Beall, of the District of Columbia, to be placed on the pension roll of the State of Maryland ;

Read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Frazier presented the memorial of Julia Ann Wilson, praying to be divorced from her husband, James Wilson ;

Read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Bramwell presented the memorial of Mordecai G. Cockey and other citizens of Carroll county, praying for the repeal of act of assembly, of December session, 1831, chapter 32, and for an act to incorporate Clover Hill Academy ;

Read and referred to Messrs. Bramwell, Parke and Hook.

Mr. Martin presented the petition of sundry citizens of Talbot county, praying that a law may be passed, giving to witnesses attending the county court of said county mileage ;

Read and referred to Messrs. Martin, Colston, Lloyd, Mason and Blakistone.

Mr. Owens presented the memorial of Essex Dorsey, James T. Baldwin and others, praying the repeal of an act entitled, an act to authorise an alteration in the location of the public road from the city of Annapolis to the city of Baltimore, through the lands